H. BELL, Editor and Proprietor.

MIDDLEBURY, VERMONT .-- WEDNESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 20, 1843.

VOL. VIII .-- NO. 33.

THE NORTHERN GALAXY. IN PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNING IN STEWART'S BUILDINGS,

COLUMN THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF THE PART

BY J. COBB JR.

17 WHOM ALL ORDERS FOR PRINTING BOOKS. PAMPHLETS. BILLS, CARDS, &c.

Of every description will be nearly and should executed, at short notice. ******

N.

TERMS OF EIGHTH VOLUME.

Vilage subscribers, . . . . . . 82 00 Mail phacribers. 2 00 Individuals and Companies who take at the office $125 or 1'50 cents if paid in six months. Thore who take of Postriders . If not paid at the end of the year 2, 25 sapers discontinued until arrearages are paid

hor POST PAID

MISCELLANEOUS.

The successful going on of Maj. Jones' Courtship.

AINEVILLE, Dec. 27, 1843. Mr. Thompson—Dear Sir:—Crismus is

She went in to call the gals, and I sot thar, and the thing's ded. You know I told thar, shivering all over so I could'nt speak little immagining that they are both cold disposition, and faculties of mind. Mary up to the chalk a Crismus.-Well dons it, as slick as a whistle, tho it come 'My Lord, what is it!, ses Miss Mary.

'Oh its alive!' ses Kesiah, 'I seed it Il till you all about the whole circumstance. The fact is, I'd made my mind up more'n fairly, and all what I made up to tell her was forgot, so I could'nt think of it to save me. But you're a married man, Mr. Thompson, so I could'nt tell you nothing about poppin the question, as they did call it. Its a pin the question, as they did call it. Its a mighty great favor to ax of a rite pretty gal, and to people as aint used to it, it goes mon-strous hard, don't it? They say widders don't mind it no more'n nothin. But I'm don't mind it no more'n nothin. But I'm deth, and went to brushin off the meal as and to people as aint used to it, it goes monmakin a transgression, as the preacher ses-Crismus eve I put on my new suit and shaved my face as slick as a smoothing iron and went over to old Miss Stanley's. As soon as I went into the parlor whar they was all tting round the fire, Miss Carline and Miss Kesiah both laughed rite out. 'There, there,' ses they, 'I told you se, I knew it would be Joseph.' What's I done Miss Carline?' ses I. You come under sister's chicken bone and I do believe she knew you were comin when she put it over the door., 'No. I didn't—I didn't, no such thing now,' ses Miss Mary, and her face blushed red all

Oh you needn't deny it,' ses Miss Kesiah, you long to Joseph, now, jes as sure as ther's any charm in the chicken bones.'

I knowe'd that was a first rate chance to say nothin zactly to the pint, so I tuck a chair and reached up and took down the bone, and put it in my pocket.

somest gal in Georgia.

'Aint you ashamed, Major ?' ses she. 'Now you ought to give her a Crismus gift, Joseph, to keep all her life,' ses Miss a gal we used to hang up our stockins''Why mother!' ses all of 'em, 'to say finement, I'd like to know what harm there is in stockins. People now-a-days is getting sibly kin, I'll let yeu know. No more so mealy-mouthed that they cant tell nothin by its name, and I don't see as the're eny from your friend till death. better than the old time people was. When I was a gal like you, child, I used to hang up my stockins and git 'em full of presents.'

The gals kept laughing.
'Never mind,' ses Miss Mary, 'the Maor's got to give me a Crismus gift—wont you

But I didn't mean that,' ses she bushel bag to hold it,' ses I.

. Oh that's the kind,' ses she Certainly I will, Major.

could. They 'spected somethin.'

I told 'em good evening and went home.

this cut does and here he cum ripin and tarms being cut does and here he cum ripin and tarms through the yard like wrath, and round he went tryin to find what was the matter. I sot down in the bag and didn't he will again bid them adieu for another find me out, and after a while he quit bark—find me out, and after a while he quit bark—find me out, and after a while he quit bark—find me out, and after a while he quit bark—find me out, and after a while he quit bark—find me out, and after a while he quit bark—find me out, and after a while he quit bark—find me out, and after a while he quit bark—find me out, and after a while he quit bark—find me out, and after a while he quit bark—find me out, and after a while he quit bark—find me out, and after a while he quit bark—find me out, and after a while he quit bark—find me out, and after a while he quit bark—find me out, and after a while can see his face again. And when he shall return, it will be mered that His formed to bond. And when he shall return, it will be mered to bond. And when he shall return, it will be mered. The Boston Atlas opens the discussion in Boston by publishing a letter on the substance of Mr. W. Morris, of the Legislative Courging formed; but it is ascertained that His formed; b went into a canter.

somethin. "Bow wow, wow" ses he. Then he'd smell agin, and try to git up to the bag.

Get out's ses I, very low, for fear they would hear me; 'Bow wow, wow's ses he.

Begone! you bominable fool,' ses I, and I sees the boat pushing off from the wharves day. Gentleman of science generally apwas monstrous glad to hear 'em for if I had two years and a half ago.' to stay there one hour more, I don't believe I'd ever got out o' that bag alive. Old Miss Stanley came out fust, and as soon as she saw the bag, ses she,

'What upon earth has Joseph put into that long bag for Mary? I'll lay its a yearlin or some live animal, or Bruin would'nt on in my last letter I was gwine to bring if I tried to-but I didn't say nothin. Bimeby they all came running out.

My Lord, what is it!, ses Miss Mary.

'Call Cato, and make him cut the rope,' reenty times to jest go and come rite out with the whole business, but whenever I got where she was, and whenever she looken at 'Don't hurt it for the world,' see Miss 'Don't hurt it for the world,' ses Miss

'Yes,' ses I 'and you know you promised to keep my Crismus present as long as fast as they could, sayin they were gwine to bright eyes, she blushes as beautiful as a mornin glory, and said she'd stick to her word. She was rite out o'bed, and her hair wasn't combed, and her head was'nt was rale distractin. I do believe if I was she stood lookin down to the floor with her roguish eyes, and her bright carls fallin all I tell you what, it was worth hangin from one Crismus to another to feel so happy as I have ever since.

I went home after we had the laugh out, and set by the fire till I had thawed. In say something, but the dear little creater the forences all the Stanleys come over to looked so sorry and kept blashin so, I couldn't our house, and we had one of the greatest our house, and we had one of the greatest Georgia, and I don't believe a happier company set down at the same table. Old Miss Stanley and mother settled the match What are you gwine to do with that bone now. Major? ses Miss Mary.

This is not fiction. The same table of the match and talked over every thing that ever hap.

They are facts of continuations occur. pened in their families, and laughed at me & facts which awaken emotions to which no Mary, and cried about their ded husbands, pen can do justice. When I seed that she blushed worse and caus they wasn't alive to see their children over at once, but young gals always like to be expected in a neighboring port in such so in German, Italian and Spanish. His col-Ah, ses old Miss Stanley, when I was be engaged awhile, you know, so spose I must wait a month or so. Mary (she says I must call her Miss Mary now) has been Then I felt a little streaked too, caus they but if you could see her, you wouldn't think was all blushin as hard as they could.

'Highty-tity!' see the old lady— 'what such a sweet little wife.

JOSEPH JONES.

ANXIETIES OF THE SAILORS LIFE.

BY THE REV. MR. ABBOTT OF NANTUCKET. Oh yes, says I, you know I promised you the emotions with which he was overwhel. their destined home of bereavement and med, when he bade adieu to his family on anguish. Pve got one for you, what I want you to keep all your life, but it would take a three tha's Vineyard. The packet was at the wharf which was to convey him from But will you keep it as long as you live?' Nantucket to the ship. He went down in the morning and saw all his private sea ety. in 1827, he used the following lanstores stowed away in the little sloop, and guage in reference to such as objected to ism is dead. And Anti-Distribution; but Now you hear that, Miss Carline, says I, she see she'll keep it all her life."

Yes, I will see Mary—but what is it?

Stores stowed away in the little sloop, and then returned to his home to take leave of his wife and children. His wife was sitting at the fire side struggling in reference to such as objected to ism is dead. And Anti-Distribution; but the agitation of the slave question.

Unstribution is something more and worse than dead. Hunkerism it means, strict Never mind, ses I, you hang up a bag ting at the fire-side, struggling in vain to towards liberty and ultimate emancipation, banding together of office-holders and offibig enough to hold it and you'll find out what restrain her tears. She had an infant a they must do more than put down the be- ce seekers to control votes by whatever it is in the mornin.'

few months old in her arms, and with her nevolent efforts of this Society. They means, through good and ill report, and 'Miss Carline winked at Miss Kesiah and foot was rocking the cradle in which lay must go back to the era of our liberty and keep up a rotation of office among themthen whispered to her—then they both laughter about three years of age, with her cheeks flushed with a which thunders its annual and joyous reciple, or any thing living and practical it saving. Then White could. They 'spected somethin.'
'You'll be sure to give it to me now, if I hang up a bag,' ses Miss Mary.
'And you promise to keep it,' ses I.
'Well I will, caus I know you wouldn't give me nothing that wasn't worth keeping.'
They all agreed that they would hang up a hang to make the first of his child. Four years will pass away are the will again take that child in his arrest the career of South American department.

Saving. Troy Whig.

Savi bag for me to put Miss Mary's Crismus pres-ent in, in the back porch, and about 9 o'clock guish, he closes the door of his house be-blow out the moral lights around us and "The figure of 'Mr. O'Gimlet's fingood evening and went home.
hind him. Four years must elapse ere he extinguish the greatest torch of all which ger post ' is beautiful. How distinctly till midnight, and when all was can cross that threshold again, One sea America presents to a benighted world, it represents Van Burenism! Let any

The wind begun to blow bominable cold letters she wrote to her husband during ting this deepest strain (slavery) upon the much service to the Calhoun's men. In and the bag kept turning round and swingin his last voyage. "One hundred," was character of our country, and remove all keeping Mr. Martin Van Boren's bead Overthrow of the Reform Ministry-Proband the bag kept turning round and swinging his last voyage. "One numered, was character of our country, and remove an keeping Mr. MARTIN VAN BURES 3 news fraid to move for fear the rope would brake fraid to move for fear the rope would brake ceive?" "Six." The invertable rule is —if I could be instrumental of ridding of kicked Calhoun's under?" to write by every ship that leaves this port, this foul blot, that revered State (Virginia) rathin like I had ager. It seemed like it would never come daylight, and I do believe if I or New Bedford, or any other port, that that gave me birth—or that not less belowmay be heard of, for the Pacific Ocean.— ed State (Kentucky) which kindly adoptives to deth: for my hart was the only spot fres to deth: for my hart was the only spot that felt warm, and it didn't beat more'n two any two ships will meet on that boundless proud satisfaction which I should enjoy for licks a minit, only when I thought how she expanse. It sometimes happens that a all the honors or all the triumphs ever dewould be sprised in the mornin, and then it ship returns, when those on board have not creed to the most successful conqueror.' Bimeby the cussed old dog come up on the porch and begun to smell bout the bag, and then he barked like he tho't he had treed and then he barked like he tho't he had treed father, who returns to the harbor of Nanheard one word from their families during tucket, after a separation of forty-eight

182.00 it he'd nip me, and what made it worse, I could'nt see what bouts he'd take hold.—

could'nt see what bouts he'd take hold.—

cing the deck, overwhelmed with emotions discovering unknown qualities in the hupprocured a rifle, returned, and shot Hay
cing the deck, overwhelmed with emotions discovering unknown qualities in the hupprocured a rifle, returned, and shot Haysteepe at the option of the proprietor. No payment come here, good feller, see I, and whistled to Carriers allowed except ordered by the proprietor a little to him, but it want no use. That he stood and kep up his eternal whinin and bar-kin, all night. I could'nt tell when daylight all well." Or perhaps he says, "Captain, very correctly upon the natural disposition

But the husband knows not, and probably public in many instances.

in death. egraph announces that a Cape Horn ship tives from Berkshire, Franklin County. has appeared in the horizon, and immediately the stars and stripes of our national banner are unfurled from our flag staff, sending a wave of emotion through the bune, writing from Brussels, thus notices town. Many families are hoping that it the costly fabric for the production of

They rap at the door. It is the knell of habit. her husband's death. And she falls senseless to the floor, as they tell her that her fathomless ocean.

ed in Nantucket, and early in the month, with a heart throbbing with affection and hope, she went to greet her husband on his return. At length the ship appeared,dropped her anchor in the harbor, and the friends of the lady went to the ship to escent the husband to the wife from whom he could world; and yet he has never been in Eugent the husband to the wife from whom he cort the husband to the wife from whom he had so long been separated. Soon they sadly returned, with the tidings that her house of a little village of Vermont, might Another Judge was forced by an armed cwt. of fresh ment, 4s. On do of salted which it vaunts its preeminence. husband had been seized with the coast fewer, upon the island of Madagascar, and when plant a weak out on his return home and this whilst his Court was in sescoaches and steamboats are more amusing

and this whilst his Court was in sescoaches and steamboats are more amusing

ion

The torrupts our offspring by necessary do of cheese, 2s 6d. On do of lard, 2s coaches and steamboats are more amusing graded race, ingrafting in the young mind graded race, ingrafting in the young mind when about a week out, on his return home, and picturesque." he died, and was committed to his ocean burial. A few days after I called upon A man was speaking a few days ago of the weeping widow and little daughter in in its advocacy of the free trade, is forced burning fever. No pen can describe the turn. They must revive the slave trade, signifies no more than the direction of

CLAY.

PHRENOLOGY IMPROVED.

felt all over in spots, for I spected every min- which is to bring him the tidings of weal pear interested in testing the skill of those A friend in the boat greets him with a a well known practicing Physician in Bursmile, and says, "Captain, your family are lington, has proclaimed that he can decide was brakin, only by the chickens crowin, and I have heavy news for you, your wife died &c., and, also, upon the bodily infirmities two years and a half ago."

A young man left this island last sum. He has been several times tried, and has mer, leaving in his quiet home a young not yet been very deficient in deciding. and beautiful wife, and infant child. That The following certificate is a fair specimen wife and child are now both in the grave. of what the Doctor might place before the will not know of it for months to come. - "I was examined by Dr. Cobb in a dark He perhaps falls asleep every night think- room. He decided very correctly in reing of the loved ones he left at his fireside, gard to my Bodily Infirmities, Natural

HENRY FOLLETT. On a bright summer afternoon, the tel- Member of the House of Representa-Montpelier Nov. 12th, 1843.

Many families are hoping that it the costly fabric for the production of is the ship in which their friends are to re. which that city has been so long celebraof the joyful tidings to the wife of the captain. For which service a silver dollar is did not before) that its peculiarity consists doned. We say perfectly coundent—for the girl of the did not before) that its peculiarity consists committee appointed, to take measures to at the first flash of his own gun-powder,

God is just: that His justice cannot sleep the established and invariable fee. And in its patterns, previously worked with the insure the attendance at the Baltimore never would trust himself in the hands of forever; that, considering numbers, nature who can describe the feelings which must utracit possible fineness, being sewed on Whig Young Men's Convention of twenty the government of Rhode Island, unless and natural means only, a revolution of then agitate the bosom of the wife? Per. their ground work. The flax of which it haps she had heard no tidings from the is made costs from $600 to 800 per pound, from the indications given by the country pened also on the eve of the New York and union, is among possible events: that it hang that bag up every Crismus till they ship for more than a year. Trembling being worth three times its weight in gold. got husbands too. Miss Mary-bless her with excitement, she dresses herself to The persons who spin it are obliged to meet her husband. "Is he alive," she work in dark rooms, into which light is ad- ously seconded in every quarter. And says to herself," or am I a widow, and the mitted only by a small aperture, that their says to herself," or am I a widow, and the poor children orphans?" She walks about eyes may become disciplined and qualified affairs, we find no great difficulty in bethe recommendation of the company herself suffice the compa the room unable to compose herself suffi- to assist them in attaining the necessary fixed at all, but the way she looked pretty ciently to sit down; eagerly she is looking spider thread fineness. The best lace out of the window and down the street, costs $40 per yard, but a very decent sort froze still, one look of her charmin face, as She sees a man with hurried steps turn may be had as cheap as $10. In England the corner, and a little boy hold of his hand. the duties double its cost, and a fair fellow Yes, it is he. And her little son has gone traveller, who bought some here, prepared over her snowey neck would feeth'd me to. down to the boat and found his father. - to smuggle it into her country by sewing Or, perhaps, instead of this, she sees two it upon her dress, trusting that the Custom of her neighbors returning slowly and House officers would gallantly overlook sadly, and directing their steps to her door, the incongruity of a profusion of the most by Mr. Hall and his numerous friends. The blood flowed back upon her heart .- expensive lace upon a well-worn travelling

Mr. Marsh's Library .- A correspondent of Crismus dinners that was ever seed in husband has long been entoomed in the the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser, in a nolice of his visit to Burlington, gives the fol-This is not fiction. These are not exowing account of Hon. Geo. P. Marsh's Li-

"Mr. Marsh's library is a very remarkable

(The New York Gazette (Calhoun) to take ground against one set of Mr. Van Buren's tariff doctrines; and to confess that Van Burenism is a rather difficult of SLAVERY DENOUNCED BY HENRY comprehension. The Gazette, however, gives as good a definition of it as has ever been made,--Observe : At a meeting of the Colonization Soci- "What does Van Burenism mean? It ting at the fire-side, struggling in vain to towards liberty and ultimate emancipation, banding together of office-holders and offifew months old in her arms, and with her nevolent efforts of this Society. They means, through good and ill report, and Beauty in the face of woman, and folly in their hearts, are two worms that fret life and waste goods.

SHERIFFS SHOT.

liam Galbreath, Deputy Sheriff of that County, was shot on Tuesday week, by Garnett Martin, while in the act of serving a writ. The wound is thought to be mor-tal. Martin escaped. The same paper states, that Mr. Ansel Rider, of Newark. Illinois, shot Mr. Edward O. Haymond, on the 6th inst. A quarrel occured between them at a tavern, and Rider went home, mend through the breast. The recovery of the latter is doubtful. Charles McNeil, the Sheriff, was also shot by Rider, whilst attempting to arrest him, and a meeting of the inhabitants held, at which-this affray having been caused by the use of ardeut spirits-the people resolved to banish the ted by the late administration, will receive and the Cubinit insisting on their right to cause.-[Boston Post.]

Bi.7" Stop ! Stop ! my dear " exclaims Mr. John Smith-"dont burn those old papers! Hand them over to me, I want them for Fanny and Bobby to make light. ers of.

"Sure enough" replies her indulgen spouse, "a penny saved is a penny carned And now while I think of it, dear, why not take my old love letters-first rate things to kindle a flame, bey ?

thousand delegates from the State; and sure of being leniently treated. This hap- the wheel of fortune, an exchange of sit lieving that the Key Stone State will cast to get up a bit of sympathy pro tempore, her vote for HENRY CLAY. Atlas.

Mr. Willis Hall will leave this for a milder climate in a few days. He has taken N. Y. Express.

Judges appear, by their own account, to money: caus they wasn't alive to see their children married.

It is all settled now, cept we haint sot the weddin day. I'd like to have it all over at once, but young gals always like to the weddin day. But young gals always like to the test of some were well; and that she might of the sound of th and on board were well; and that she might be expected in a neighboring port in such a month. The wife of the captain resided in Nantucket, and early in the month, with a heart throbbing with a flection and hope, she went to greet her husband on his return. At length the ship appeared, droped her anchor in the barbor, and a valuable series also in German, Italian and Spanish. His collection of engravings is doubtless unrivalled in this country; including specimens of nearly three millions of men of the best gift of God to man—liberty. I have been waylaid and murdered for doing in this country; including specimens of nearly three millions of men of the best gift of God to man—liberty. I have been waylaid and murdered for doing in this country; including specimens of nearly three millions of men of the best gift of God to man—liberty. I have been waylaid and murdered for doing in this country; including specimens of nearly three millions of men of the best gift of God to man—liberty. I have been waylaid and murdered for doing to their duty. In another part a Judge was of yearned out of the Court House by the populace, and his life put in danger, merely because he wished to hold his Court as glish literature; so that his library would surhe directed. Another Judge was near 3s. On each ib of hops 3d. On every Slavery is an evil to the master. It is being attacked whilst on his bench, for ex- bushel of potatoes, 3d. On all unnumera- uttorly subservient of the Christian relig-

> Type-Setting Machine .- Mr. J. V. Ford, of this city, has been engaged for several years in bringing to perfection a type-setting and distributing machine of his own invention, which he has at length comple-

The machine is operated by means of keys moved like the keys of a piano forte says: -the movement of each key depositing saving. Troy Whig.

satisfactory results. That paper suggests that the road will be carried through, unless prevented by the radicalism of the New

Nr. Lafentaine rose and informed the House that he and his colleagues, with the architect. The educated population will gone to bed, I went softly into the back gate, captain upon this island has passed but sevand went up to the porch, and thar, shure captain upon this island has passed out seven pointing the way to their rights, their lib- man analyze the history of the Regency say that some locolocos in verming are of signed their onices, and their happiness. They must candidate for the Presidency, and he will this stamp; fortunately for that party, not general had been pleased to accept the could be a pleased to accept the route. The people on the route same. No reason was given for this the jice. It was monstrous unhandy to git into it but I was tarmined not to back out; so have been married eleven years, and count-I got some chairs on the top of a bench and ing all the days my husband has been at Then and not till then, when universal proved to be in favor or against every of their lands even without an act of in- in the Legislature. Mr. Sulvan, as Premand the days my absand has been and the first and the firs Vt. Watchman.

able Return of the Tories to Power! We are indebted to Mr. George Ross, of Kingston, who came to this place yesterday afternoon in the steamer "Princess Royal," for the intelligence of the complete overthow of the Reform Ministry in Canada. Every member of the Cabinet, The Louisville Journal states that Wil. except one, resigned on the 27th inst. The precise causes of this explosion have not vet been made public. Hon. Wm. Morris, a leading tory, had been sent for from Brockville, and it was generally supposed that a new administration would be formed under his auspices. This is the most important event that has taken place since the Union of the two provinces. The tories are in ecstacies. They look upon this as the end of French influence, which has prevaled to such an extent since the Union went into operation. Most of the > seen whether their misrule will drive the people into rebellion again. Parliament will probably be dissolved, and a new General Election ordered. Albany Advertiser.

EX-NO-GOV. DORR.

We observe that several of the locofoco papers are shedding tears (apparently, to sure-we don't think they weep much in secret,) over the recent arrest of Thomas Wilson Dorr, quasi Governor of Rhode Dorrites have already been arrested, found guilty of treason, and have been pardoned. With this knowledge, Dorr voluntarily this enthusiastic effort will be most zeal- locofoco newspapers hold up Dorr as a martyr, and the and catch a few votes. Dorr will not be harmed. Vt. Watchman.

the British get up for home consumption virtues. -that for exportation is a different thing It is the source of indolence and destrucaltogether.

ONTAINE MINISTRY. A letter from King. happiness. The poor despise labor, because ston, dated Monday evening, Nov. 27th slavery makes it degrading. The mass "The Metropolis in esse has been thrown into quite a Babel-like confusion Mr. Ford will carry his machine to New York this day, for the purpose of submitting it to the inspection of those who feel floor of the House as an Absolute Power true glory depend upon virtue and good to -and every measure he brought forward man. The conscious injustice of Slavery was triumphantly carried. On Saturday, hangs as a mill-stone about the necks of however, it was known that Sir Charles the sons of genius and will not let them Metcalf had held a cabinet council, which up! We learn from the Concord (N. H.)

Statesman that the route from Concord to tion of several hours, and on Monday, at apshire locofocos. We are sorry to exception of Mr. Secretary Daily had re- notwork at all-the uneducated must work cil; it is understood also, that the French It retards Population and Wealth. - ayal party is to be represented in the new

The Rochester Democrat says :-

" This is the most important event that has taken place since the Union of the two provinces The Tories are in ecstacies. They looked upon this as the end of French influence, which was prevailed to such an extent since the Union went into operation. Most of the measures orginated and matured by the Reformers will fail if the Tories succeed in establishing their power. the General Amnesty for political offien. ces contemplated by the late administretion will rec iv no favor at their hands-It remains to be seen whether their misrule will drive the people into rebellion a-

Parliament will probably be dissolved, and a new General Election order-

A Kingston correspondent of the Torono Colorist ascribes the resignation of the measures originated and matured by the cabinet Ministers to a difference of opin-Reformers will fail if the Tories succeed ion on the subject of the Executive patronin establishing their power. The General age; the Governor General claiming the Amnesty for political offences, contempla- right to dispose of it at his own pleasure, no favor at their hands. It remains to be at least an equal if not a superior voice in its distribution.

It is intimated, however, that a more important subject is involved-no less than the principle of responsible government, which is hinted, Sir Charles Metcalf is disposed to throw overboard, as impractinble in a colony.

We perceive that Judges Macauley and Jones have been called to the Executive Council-we presume in addition to the Cabinet Ministers.

SLAVERY-THE EVIL-THE REW. EPY.

To the Editor of the Tribune :

"And can the liberties of a nation be turn and all are hoping for tidings from the absent. Soon the name of the ship is announced. And then there is an eager contention with the boys to be the first bearer tention with the boys to be the first bearer of the invent that he will be tried, convicted and particles are the invent that he will be tried, convicted and particles are the invent that he will be tried, convicted and particles are the invent that he will be tried, convicted and particles are the invent that he will be tried, convicted and particles are the invent that he will be tried, convicted and particles are the invent that he will be tried, convicted and particles are the invent that he will be tried, convicted and particles are the invent that he will be tried. They of course known themselves are reason to believe, are rousing themselves be arrested—but also perfectly confident that he will be tried, convicted and particles are that he will be tried, convicted and particles are the invent that he will be tried. They of course known themselves are reason to believe, are rousing themselves be arrested—but also perfectly confident their only firm basis, a conviction in the doned. We say perfectly confident their only firm basis, a conviction in the doned. We say perfectly confident their only firm basis a conviction in the doned. We say perfectly confident. papers from various sections, we judge that Massachusetts elections, and straitway the may become probable by supernatural interference! The Almighty has no attri-Government of Rhode bute which can take a side with us in such

Thomas Jefferson never thought of the absurdity of debating the question whether Slavery be an evil, nor was he indulgent to the delusive idea that it would be per-THE CANADIAN TARIFF. A bill is un- petual. He reduced the subject to its passage in the Christoval Colon, which der discussion in the Canadian Parlia- certain elements; the master must liberhence on the 12ht. We sincerely ment to increase the tariff of duties upon ate his slave, or the slave will exterminate hope that all the advantages expected to be certain agricultural articles imported from the master. This conclusion is not weakderived from this voyage may be realized the United States. We copy the follow- ened by the history of the past. The ing from the bill. We cannot excress an. same color in the ancient Republics eny opinion of the fate of this bill, though titled the State to use emancipation as the resolutions declaring it expedient pass. safety valve; yet notwithstanding the Judges in Arkansus. The Arkansus ed. The proposed duties are in sterling borough amalgamation of the freed man with the free born, servile wars nearly exhave a hard time of it. The following is from the late charge of the Hon. John Field, Judge of the Sixth Judicial District, and foal under two years old do 15s. On Slavery was not the secret cause of their to the Grand Jury of Hempstead county: every mule or ass ditto 5s. On every bull ultimaternin. But if "His justice" should "In some parts of Arkansas it is really do 15s. On every ox four years old, ditto, "sleep for ever," and the tragedy so awone. His collection of Swedish, Danish dangerous for a Judge to protect his sta- 16s. On every steer, heifer and cow, un- fully predicted should never occur, still graded race, ingrafting in the young mind This is the "free trade," doctrine, that and heart all the vices and none of the tive of all industry, which in times post among the wise has ever been regarded as CANADA-RESIGNATION OF THE LAF the first friend of religion, morality and of slaveholders are idlers. It is the mother of ignorance. The system of Common Schools has not sucwill set 180 types in a minute. A particular description of this machine is withheld at present for obvious reasons. In the course of a few weeks a full description of it will be laid before the public.

In the required letter in its proper place. It thrown into quite a Babel-like confusion by the unexpected intelligence that the by the unexpected intelligence that the Lafontaine Administration, which during the resolution are natural enemies. In the session had controlled the the destines of United Canada as with a rod of iron was at an end, and that its members, with but the laid before the public.

steam cars for the nations of the worldthe Slave States import the handles for without science and of course without skill. If there be a given amount of mechanical genius among a people, it is of necessity developed in proportion as a whole or part of the population are educated. In the Slave States the small portion educated is inert.

It is antagonistic to the Fine Arts .-Creations of beauty and sublimity are tle embodiments of the soul's imaginings: the fountain must surely be pure and placid whence these glorious and immortal and lovely images are reflected. Liberty has ever been the mother of the Arts.